Career/Professional Development Events:

- Spring Career Counseling Sessions

Did you know that the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs offers one-on-one career counseling to postdocs? These individualized sessions are intended for you to discuss career-related topics such as career exploration strategies and how to initiate a job search inside or outside of Academia. Alternatively, one could utilize this session to receive feedback on their CV, resume, and/or cover letter, or participate in a mock interview.

Spring Career Counseling Hours: Tuesdays, 11am-2pm and Wednesdays, 2:30pm-4:30pm. Please see <http://postdocs.columbia.edu/careerdevelopment.html> for instructions on how to sign up for a career counseling session. April sessions are now available for sign up.

- Double Discovery Teaching Opportunities Info Session

The Columbia University Science Discovery Program is a pilot science education and outreach program for eleventh grade students who are from low-income families and are first generation college bound. This Program will be part of the Double Discovery Center where children of promise have been educated since 1965. We are recruiting teachers from all disciplines of mathematics, science, medicine and engineering and are interested in having postdocs and graduate students involved with the program. We are looking for instructors who would be interested in designing courses related to their research interests and who could commit to meeting with students once a week for a semester. Please come to our Info Sessions on the CUMC and Morningside campuses to learn more about how you can get involved, or contact Joe Ayala (Director of Double Discovery Center; email: ja48@columbia.edu) or Lam Hui (Professor of Physics; email: lh399@columbia.edu) for further information.

- How to conduct research that gets published and noticed – a monthly series for postdocs

Publishing one's research in a top tier journal is often the goal for both a postdoc and their PI. This accomplishment, first and foremost, requires innovative and groundbreaking research. Not to be overlooked though, are the steps and processes taken when conducting the research that eventually may lead to a high impact publication. In this monthly seminar series we will examine the research life cycle for a postdoc from research design best practices through considerations for getting a publication noticed. Throughout the series we will use the theme of publishing one's research to delve into topics related to conducting research with integrity. The series will run from the months of April through November occurring from 12-1 PM on the third Thursday of each month at CUMC with lunch provided. Further information about the entire series can be found at: <http://postdocseries.wikischolars.columbia.edu/home>

The second session of the series will be held on Thursday, May 21st from 12-1PM and will focus on effective research management through data management planning. This session will be led by Amy Nurnberger, the Research Data Manager in the Center for Digital Research and Scholarship.

CUMC

When: Thursday, May 21st, 12-1 PM (lunch provided)

Where: (CUMC) Russ Berrie Medical Pavilion, room 2

- Office of Postdoctoral Affairs LinkedIn Group – Job ads and Career articles

Do you have a LinkedIn account? If not, you should – networking is invaluable for landing the position you will seek following your training. If you do have a LinkedIn account, you should strongly consider joining the Columbia University Postdocs and Postdoc Alumni Group on LinkedIn. You can join the private group by searching for 'Columbia University Postdocs and Postdoc Alumni' under groups and submitting a request to join. The group has grown to 630 members, and beyond current Columbia Postdocs, there are also numerous Columbia Postdoc Alumni members that are employed across many different career sectors belonging to the group. The Office of Postdoctoral Affairs frequently receives position openings and job ads from employers both within and outside of Academia and we post these job ads exclusively on the LinkedIn group page. We also post relevant and timely career articles and pieces about the job market, professional and career development topics, and advice columns. Join the group today to start taking advantage of this great resource!

- Office of Postdoctoral Affairs Website

Did you know that the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs (OPA) maintains a website ( <http://postdocs.columbia.edu/> ) containing a wealth of information for postdocs? What types of information can be found on the OPA webpage? The Postdoc handbook with policies and procedures around being a postdoc at Columbia, the OPA monthly events calendar, funding opportunities, as well as career resources with listings of groups to join, webpages to browse, and job search sites to utilize. This is by no means an exhaustive list, so be sure to take a spin through the OPA webpage to see what information is most relevant and helpful to you. If you feel there are pieces of information that should be added to the OPA webpage that are not currently there, please let us know, as we are always looking to provide the most relevant and useful information to Columbia Postdocs.

Social/Networking Events:

- Postdoc Weekly Coffee/Tea Hour – CUMC

These coffee/tea hours are a great way for you to meet other postdocs and hear about upcoming events. The coffee/tea hour is informal and you can stop by for as long as you would like.

- New Postdoc Orientation

In an effort to acclimate new postdocs to Columbia University, we would like to offer a first look at the resources available at the university. Discussion includes a brief rundown of benefits and the services available to Postdocs University wide and through the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs. Postdoc orientation is held every other month and rotates between the Morningside Campus and the Medical Center campus. Our May orientation will be held at the Medical Center Campus. If you know a new postdoc here, please share this information with them, as they might not yet be on the postdoc mailing list.
